

Statement of participation

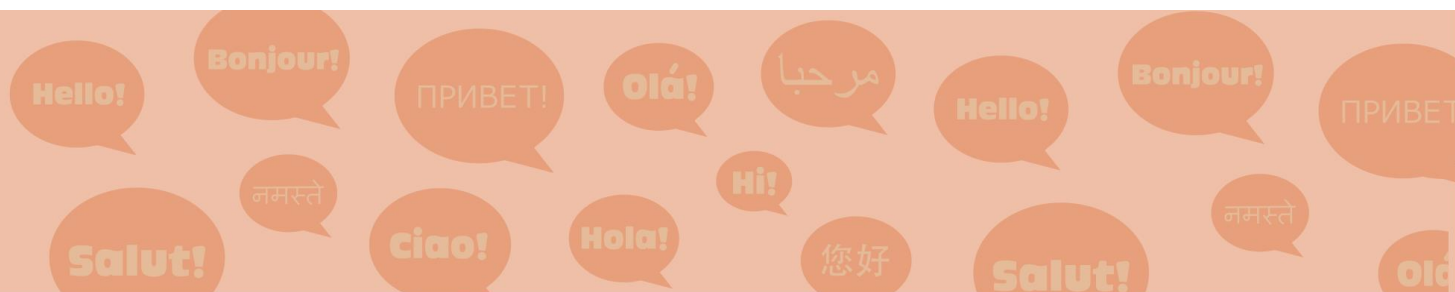

Tithi Bose

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Intermediate Spanish: Cities with history

This 5-hour free course explored the place of Arab and Jewish cultures in Spanish history, to support the development of language skills in Spanish.

Issue date: 26 January 2022

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/spanish/intermediate-spanish-cities-history/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: L204_1

Intermediate Spanish: Cities with history

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/spanish/intermediate-spanish-cities-history/content-section-0>

Course summary

Please note: this course will close on 16th June 2022. You can continue to study this course up until this date. In this free course, Intermediate Spanish: Cities with history, you will learn about the history of Spain and the important place of Arab and Jewish cultures in Spanish history. You will study a number of language points to help you talk about history and will write descriptive texts using a variety of stylistic devices.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand narrating in the past
- describe a place and daily routines in the past
- revise the presente histórico, preterite and imperfect tenses
- distinguish between the uses of the preterite and imperfect tenses
- locate events in the past: time expressions and dates, sequencing an account.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Historia

Section 2

Ciudades con historia

Section 3

Conclusion

Section 4

Take the next step