

Statement of participation

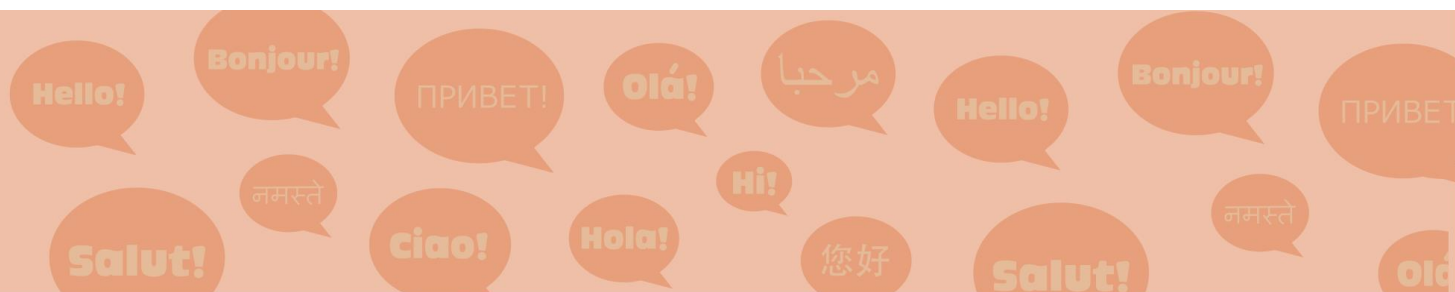

Tithi Bose

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Getting started with Spanish 2

This free 6-hour course built on some of the fundamentals in learning Spanish, including telling the time and discussing daily routines.

Issue date: 26 January 2022

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/getting-started-spanish-2/content-section-overview>

COURSE CODE: LXS002_1

Getting started with Spanish 2

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/getting-started-spanish-2/content-section-overview>

Course summary

This free course is your next step to continue your journey learning Spanish, one of the most widely spoken languages in the world. You should have some knowledge of Spanish, either because you have studied Getting started with Spanish 1 or because you have learned Spanish elsewhere. In this free course you will work with audio and interactive activities to practise the skills you need to talk about everyday activities you do, including how to tell the time. You will also learn the present tense form of some common verbs and how to pronounce the 'r' sound. This OpenLearn course is an extract from the beginning of the Open Centre for Languages and Cultures short course LXS002: Beginners Spanish 2: ¡En marcha! After completing this free course, you may wish to register for the full course to continue your learning.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Week 1

Introduction

How to tell the time

Week 2

Everyday activities